

THE SABBATH QUESTION.

BY A. R. EYMOUR.

Bas. STOKEMAN—An advent brother has written to me from Vermont requesting me to send my views on the Sabbath to the Chief...

QUESTIONS.

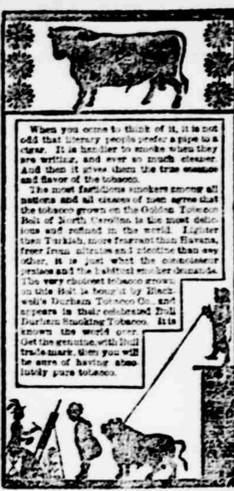

- 1. Where is there one command of God to keep holy the seventh day Sabbath prior to the time of Moses? Deut 5: 2, 3.
2. Where is there one command of God to any of the Gentile nations, either in this or any other dispensation, to observe the seventh-day Sabbath?
3. Where is there one command of God to any believer in Jesus Christ to observe the seventh-day Sabbath subsequent to the crucifixion of the Son of God?
4. Where does the Comforter, or Holy Ghost, or Spirit of truth, which is to guide the church into all truth, command any one to keep the seventh-day Sabbath?
5. Where is there even one text in the Word of God, stating that the ten commandments alone constitute God's moral, holy, or spiritual law, which you say is our rule to conduct, and constitutes man's whole duty?
6. Where is there one text in all the living oracles of God, stating that all His (God's) commandments, which are sure and stand fast forever, and ever mean the ten on the tables of stone, no more or less?
7. Where is there one text in the blessed Bible that informs us that there was any more sanctity, holiness or spirituality, attached to the seventh-day Sabbath than there was the entire sacrificial law? See Num. 18: 8, 9.
8. Where is there one text in the entire epistle of Paul that expressly declares that the same moral, holy, just good or spiritual law, or school master which brought us to Christ which Paul positively declares we are no longer under, that it was fulfilled that we are delivered from, that being dead wherein we are held of which Christ is the end, abolished taken away is now obligatory?
9. Where is there one jot or tittle of testimony in the second law, or testament or law of the Spirit of faith denouncing any one as a sinner who violates the fourth commandment in the decalogue during the entire gospel dispensation?
10. Where is there one text in the Bible that says the keeping of the seventh-day Sabbath is the seal of the living God, and seal of this dispensation?
11. Where does Paul who was an able minister of the New Testament, who preached nothing that was profitable to the church of God, teach seventh-day Sabbath keeping?
12. Where does God from whom all wisdom flows, or where does Jesus Christ, through whom all wisdom flows to the household of faith, or church of God, or churches of Christ, ever in any single instance impose seventh-day Sabbath keeping upon the followers of Christ, or Christians, during the entire dispensation of grace?
I hereby offer a reward of fifty dollars to any seventh day sabbath keeper who will with Gods word in his hand, attack, "thus saith the Lord" to the affirmative of the above questions. These questions have led eight ministers to my knowledge out of the seventh-day Sabbath, and scores of private members and kept hundreds out of the seventh-day delusion, which is a pure speculation, nothing more nor less. There is not one solitary particle of evidence, in the Old Testament or the New, that enjoins that day upon the Christian world. And I positively know it; and I challenge the whole Sabatarians brotherhood to meet the above deeply important questions. Were it possible for them to do this, I should certainly embrace and preach the seventh-day Sabbath at once.
(The above was read by Eld. Newcomb with his first reply.)
